The Robertson School Band was formed and they performed their first concert in December. They performed throughout the school year at other schools in the district.
92% of the fourth grade mainstream students achieved the standard in Reading - Basic Understanding. 8% nearly achieved the standard.
The third grade class was chosen to be televised on the Channel 12 News Series, "Youth At Risk," for their participation in the "Respect for Living Things" program.