Healthy Kids Day: For the third year Brown Ave. School held its Healthy School Day event. Children are exposed to a number of speakers and exhibits showing how to live a healthy lifestyle.

Model Classroom Initiative: Two classrooms received a $15,000 grant to increase the amount of computers in their classrooms. The children have presented their work to the School Committee.

Peer Tutoring: The 5th and 1st grade teachers have started a program in which the 5th graders gave up their recess time to help tutor 1st graders. This program helps make a bond between the older and younger children.
