Highlights from the school

See Web for school goals.

Implemented a third grade reading initiative. The initiative used special educators, reading teacher, literacy assistants, and classroom teachers to deliver the 4 block strategies in an uninterrupted 135 minute reading block.

Participated in the Principals Residency Program. As a result, a principal intern spent the year shadowing the principal and working with students, staff and parents.

Involved over 45 parent volunteers in classrooms in the school, reorganized the PTO, and involved the community in the after school program.
